Futurity 65 will be held in connection with the International Show, which will be held during the 2022 fall show season at World Dairy Expo in Madison, Wisconsin. We invite you to participate in the most exciting 2-Year-Old class of the year in 2022!

Closing date for your nominations and payment:

December 1, 2020

Nomination and Eligibility: Heifer calves born between September 1, 2019 and August 31, 2020 are eligible for Futurity 63.

No substitutes may be shown for any reason. Eligibility to show follows the animal in case she is sold. All advertising and other costs shall be entered in the Futurity account as well as all money received for entries and fees. All fees paid in full shall remain in the Futurity. It is these fees on heifers later dropped from the Futurity that provides the purse for those who exhibit on Futurity show day.

After expenses are paid, the purse shall be divided among the winners as follows:

1 st place	15 percent
2 nd place	12 percent
3 rd place	10 percent
4 th place	8 percent
5 th place	6 percent
6 th -10 th	4 percent
11 th -15 th	3 percent
16 th -20 th	1½ percent

The balance to be pro-rated among remaining cows shown except that in no event shall any premium exceed the amount of preceding premium. Any unclaimed awards shall be divided equally among participants in the Futurity class.

Should any condition arise which prevents the showing of this Futurity, the right is reserved to call show off and to pay to the persons owning the calves eligible at the time of said calling off, their pro rata share of all money accrued in the division called off, after deducting the actual expense of promotion of said Futurity. Government Body: This Futurity shall be administered by a National Milking Shorthorn Futurity Committee of five appointed by the president.

The judge of the International Show will judge the Futurity class. If the Futurity Committee wishes, they may select a consulting judge from one available at the show.

All entrants agree to be amenable to all rules and regulations of the sponsoring show. All final decisions shall rest with the Futurity Committee.
